ELECTION

In response to the Restriction Requirement dated September 4, 2003, Applicants Provisionally elect Group II, claims 6-10, drawn towards a tube, with traverse.

It is respectfully submitted that claims 1-10 have unity of invention and that these claims should be examined by the Examiner. The present invention is an application filed under 35 U.S.C. § 371 based on International Application No. PCT/AU00/00781. Unity of invention was found in International Application No. PCT/AU00/00781. Applicants, respectfully direct the Examiner to the International Preliminary Examination Report showing unity of invention for claims 1-10.

Also, in accordance with PCT Rule 13 and more specifically, PCT Rule 13.2 “the unity of invention shall be fulfilled when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more same or corresponding special technical features.” Additionally, 13.2 states the “expression ‘special technical feature’ shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.” As found in the International Application, unity of invention exists in this application, thus claims 1-10 should be examined.

Additionally, the Examiner has not provided sufficient evidence to establish a lack of unity of invention. Rather, it appears that the Examiner is applying a species rejection or trying to restrict claims drawn to a method from claims drawn to an apparatus. This is not proper. Applicants respectfully direct the Examiner to administrative instructions under the PCT, ANNEX B of the MPEP, disclosing numerous examples concerning unity of invention. In these examples, it is shown that method and apparatus claims may have unity of invention. These claims should be examined together if there is a special technical feature in common with all of the claims, that is, if there is unity of invention among the claims. Claims 1-10 clearly fall within this category.

Moreover, Applicants respectfully assert that all of claims 1-10 include a special technical feature and do not lack unity of invention. This special technical feature may include, for example, a tube having tabs or other features in common to claims 1-10. The International Preliminary Examination Report provides further evidence of unity of invention.

In light of the above-identified deficiencies, it is respectfully submitted that the Examiner has not established lack of unity of invention. Thus, withdrawal of the Restriction Requirement is respectfully requested.

CONCLUSION

Applicants believe that a full and complete response has been made to the pending Office Action and respectfully submit that all of the stated objections and grounds for rejection have been overcome or rendered moot. Accordingly, Applicants respectfully submit that all pending claims are allowable and that the application is in condition for allowance.
